DANVILLE, VA., November 23.—While the past week was one of social interest to all, and many homes had their air of hospitality that bespeaks cordially to the guest, the revolution of the social wheel centered on Thursday afternoon, when it was noted about that Cupid's telegraph would herald tidings that were of interest to the social realm throughout two sister states, when Mrs. John B. Fuller entertained at "hearts" at her charming home on South Main Street from 2:30 to 6:30 P. M. in honor of Miss Mary Verser Gravelly, one of the most attractive young ladies of Danville. The house was most artistically decorated in the autumn colors, yellow and red chrysanthemums, together with feathery ferns and palms, forming a perfect bower, where Cupid's message was at home. Mrs. Fuller, the gracious hostess, welcomed her guests with that old Virginia cordiality, and soon all were gathered around the tables, when a telegram from Cupid was read by the hostess announcing the engagement of Miss Mary Verser Gravelly and Mr. Ernest Clapp, of Greensboro, N. C., the wedding to take place in January, 1908. The health of the bride and groom to be was drunk, and Miss Lois Conrad responded with a unique original toast. There were gathered around the seven tables as charming a set of ladies as ever gathered for an afternoon's pastime. The cards, heart shaped, with crown of hearts, whole hearts, pierced hearts, broken hearts, and so on, the object of the game being to get rid of all the broken hearts. Dainty score cards, hand painted by the hostess, in the shape of a wedding bell held by Cupid, with M. G. and E. C. in gold letters emblematic of the occasion, marked the progress of the game. Mrs. W. W. Williamson and Mrs. John T. Watson, Jr., doing the scoring. After the game delicious refreshments, where heart shapes still prevailed, were served, consisting of green peppers, stuffed with salad, heart-shaped brain patties, celery, olives, aspers, pickle, etc. Heart-shaped ice cream and cake, with the letters M. J. and E. C. in red letters. The guest of honor, Miss Gravelly, was presented with a marriage book of white moire, with silver lettering. The club prize, an exquisite Venetian glass bonbon tray, was won by Mrs. W. G. Pace, while the visitors' prize was cut for by Mrs. J. E. Perkins and Mrs. Webster, of Chicago, Peabody, being the fortunate winner of a crimson and gold bonbon tray, which she presented to Mrs. Webster.

The afternoon was one of unusual interest and pleasure, and while it was the regular meeting of the "Sisters Social," Cupid came in with beautiful hand-painted cards, and, therefore, hearts reigned supreme and were trumps throughout the happy hours. Miss Gravelly, around whom everything centered, is one of Danville's most attractive young ladies, noted for her beauty and graceful manner throughout the State, while Mr. Ernest Clapp is one of North Carolina's most popular men, and holds the responsible position of clerk of the Superior Court of Guilford County, and resides in Greensboro, N. C.

Among the guests present were: Mrs. Rorer James, Mrs. Decatur Holcombe, Mrs. Spencer James, Mrs. James Irvin, Mrs. Frank Ferrell, Mrs. Overton Boatwright, Mrs. T. A. Waller, Mrs. Peace Gravelly, Mrs. George Penn, Mrs. Henry Jeffers, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Webster, of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Rucker Penn; Mrs. W. G. Higgins, Mr. W. G. Pace, Mrs. Charles Holland, Mrs. John Boswell, Mrs. W. W. Williamson, Mrs. J. E. Perkins, Mrs. John T. Watson, Jr., Mrs. Long, of Lynchburg, Va.; Mrs. Nohl, of North Carolina; Misses Mary Gravelly, Lois Conrad, Alice Cummings, Blanche Patton, Ima Allen, Marion Noell, Janie Edwards, Blanche Moore, North Carolina; Bessie Watson, Eliza Hamlin, Mabel Robinson and Mary Hunter Bethell.
